

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL AID POLICY (UNDERGRADUATE) SUMMER 2015

The University provides a range of scholarships and aid for its undergraduate students, namely:

1. Honors Awards: There are currently three types of Honors Awards offered by the University to recognize special distinction by a student in academics. In case of the Named Scholarship only, leadership and excellence in a variety of non-academic areas vital to one's growth as a citizen and professional is also given due consideration. The three awards, detailed below, in descending order of magnitude are the Named Scholarships, Vice-Chancellor's Honors List and the Dean's Honors List.
2. Merit Scholarships: These scholarships are also purely academic awards, based usually on one's GPA in HSC, or HSC and SSC, both at the time of admission. A student needs to maintain requisite GPA during the course of his or her study at the University and also be in good standing in all other regards to retain this award. Students performing well above their original award level are allowed to apply for a revision, and awarded an advancement at the discretion of the authorized committee.
3. Special Scholarships:
 - a. Freedom Fighters: As per Private University Act 2010 the University will award full scholarship to sons/daughters of freedom fighters, subject to quota allocations assigned for Freedom Fighters children each term, maintenance of good academic standing, and university-verified evidence of status.
 - b. Remote Areas: Poor and meritorious students from remote area of Bangladesh will be awarded free scholarship, subject to quota allocations assigned for Remote Area Students each term and maintenance of good academic standing.
 - c. Other: The University also awards a number of special, non-academic scholarships, on the basis of proven and documented financial need, or due to social situations, including gender. The University also awards Special Scholarships on the basis of superlative, proven and documented excellence in athletic or cultural areas. These scholarships are usually lower in award than the Merit Scholarships, and entirely at the discretion of the scholarship committee.

All scholarships are subject to quota allocations for that award in a given term for a given department. Good academic standing is a maintenance requirement for all of them.

Further qualification and maintenance details of these scholarships are provided below. They may change from time to time, but rules are not retroactively applied to awardees.

Honors Awards:

Named Scholarships

These scholarships are endowed or gifted by a patron or friend of the institution. At this time the University is proud to offer six such scholarships. In addition to the common rules of qualification, any special condition attached by the benefactor may also apply.

A benefactor may withdraw an award from the institution or a given awardee, unless it is an endowed award, if either the University or the student fails to comply with their expected conditions and standards.

An award is usually given to a student for the normal four-year duration of his or her program. In case of awards during the course of a program, it applies only to remainder of normal duration.

Named Scholarships are not extendable beyond the normal four year or twelve term duration. Anyone requiring a longer time to graduate, (for any reason whatsoever) loses the award after the normal duration. At that time, it becomes available for a new recipient. It also may become available sooner if an awardee fails to retain it due to poor performance or standing.

Due to the nature and conditions of its award, the Named Scholarship is not available every year or term. When available, the University will notify students with minimum required qualifications to apply.

Further conditions of a Named Scholarship

1. The Named Scholarship is awarded to a student of outstanding merit in both academics and co-curricular areas. He or she must also be in good standing in every respect, and demonstrate lively school spirit, including community service. A CGPA of at least 3.8 is the minimum requirement to apply for this award.
